A Grand Opening party is planned from 8:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. Sept. 16 for the new location at 401 Central Ave., Wiggins. Enjoy complimentary local food trucks, including Morningwood Coffee Truck, Delia's Tacos and More and Blue Ribbon BBQ and Smoke. The celebration will also include drawings throughout the day, bank trivia games and prizes with gift cards from local restaurants and businesses, as well as a Colorado Rockies jersey from pitcher Ty Blach and Denver Broncos memorabilia.

The new Wiggins building sits across the street from the former location, where the staff, a dedicated team of local Wiggins residents, have been serving the community for decades. The branch joined the High Plains Bank family in 2001.

"High Plains Bank has been actively supportive of the growth and improvements in our community," said Gail Stencil, Wiggins location president, who has been part of the bank since 1973. "Our goal is to serve and be a part of the thriving community of Wiggins for generations to come."

"We have had the good fortune to be part of the Wiggins community for 20 years," said John Creighton, High Plains Bank CEO. "We anticipate that Wiggins will be a hub for the long-term growth of the organization and to serve the surrounding communities. None of this would be possible without the support of the community and the long-time and emerging leaders of our Wiggins team: Gail, Esther, Janet, Debbie, Linda, Dlana, Ximena, Caleb, Krystal and Lara."

The building was designed and constructed by Buildings by Design of Brush.

High Plains Bank is family and employee-owned, with locations in Bennett, FLagler, Keenesburg, Longmont and Wiggins as well as online at HPBGO.com.
