

HIGH PLAINS BANK
Employee Owned • Community Driven

High Plains Bank New Building in Wiggins Now Open
Wiggins Team Celebrates with Community Grand Opening Party!

September 13, 2022 (Wiggins, Colorado) - High Plains Bank, an employee owned and community driven bank, is celebrating the opening of its new branch building, located at 401 Central Avenue. The new Wiggins building, across the street from the former location, represents a new phase for the branch, which has been a part of the High Plains Bank family since 2001. The staff, a dedicated team of local Wiggins residents, have been serving the Wiggins community for decades.

The new building was designed and constructed by Buildings By Design, a full-range general contracting firm located in Brush, Colorado with deep ties to the Wiggins community.

The Wiggins team is celebrating with a Grand Opening party for the entire community, which will take place on Friday, September 16th from 8:30AM-2:00PM. There will be complimentary local food trucks including Morningwood Coffee Truck, Delia's Tacos and More, and Blue Ribbon BBQ and Smoke. In addition, there will be drawings throughout the day, bank trivia games, and prizes with gift cards from local restaurants and businesses, as well as a Colorado Rockies jersey from pitcher Ty Blach, and Denver Broncos Memorabilia.

"High Plains Bank has been actively supportive of the growth and improvements in our community," shares Gail Stencel, Wiggins Location President. Stencel, a Wiggins native, has been part of the bank since 1973, continuing when High Plains Bank took ownership in 2001. "Our goal is to serve and be a part of the thriving community of Wiggins, for generations to come."

"We have had the good fortune to be part of the Wiggins community for 20 years," says John Creighton, High Plains Bank CEO. "We anticipate that Wiggins will be a hub for the long-term growth of the organization and to serve the surrounding communities. None of this would be possible without the support of the community and the long-time and emerging leaders of our Wiggins team – Gail, Esther, Janet, Debbie, Linda, Diana, Ximena, Caleb, Krystal, and Lara."

About High Plains Bank

High Plains Bank's commitment to support the vitality of our communities began more than one hundred years ago. The bank is explicit that its first goal is to make a lasting impact in our communities while empowering people to manage their financial moments of need and life events. As a family and employee-owned community bank, High Plains Bank places the highest value on relationships with our customers and our employees. High Plains Bank was founded in 1908 in Flagler, Colorado with physical branches in Bennett, Flagler, Keenesburg, Downtown and Northwest Longmont, Wiggins, as well as digital banking services through HPBGO.com.